Genesis 32

Read through Genesis 29–32 this week. Take some time to process these questions. Also purpose to spend some time in prayer with God... Good quality time with the Lord. Questions are taken from GENESIS: A 12 Week Study by Mitchell Mark

Read about Jacob’s relationship with Laban in Genesis 30:1–43. Laban tries to cheat Jacob out of his wages by removing the striped and spotted goats and black lambs from the flock. However, Jacob employs an odd mating technique that works to his favor, and he prospers. How does Jacob experience God’s grace in the face of Laban’s manipulative techniques here?

In the opening scene of Genesis 32:1–8, Jacob is gripped with fear. To his credit, he is on the journey, on the way to the Promised Land in obedience to the word of God (31:3). Yet as he faces the prospect of seeing his brother Esau again, fear grips Jacob’s heart as he hears that his brother is approaching with four hundred men. However, Jacob brings this fear before God in prayer in 32:9–12. Read this prayer carefully. What characteristics and promises of God strengthen Jacob to cast his fears upon God?
